

QUIERO DESPERTAR

"I said," the prince cried back, "look at the moon!". So the grey man turned to one of his sailors and said, "You know where you can get him such a suit." "Why didn't you go to a hospital or something?" I asked, feeling enormous pity for the wretched boy. We flew over and spent most of the day glubbing around in the Pacific with a bunch of kids fifteen years younger than I and five years younger than Janice. I'd been on these jaunts with Janice before and enjoyed them so much I'd bought my own wetsuit. But I didn't enjoy it nearly as much as I did Saturday night and all of Sunday. Amos and I darted on ahead to get back to the cell. Then Amos walked out to the boat with the broken. Fiction is bad because the standards are rigid, stupid, and narrow, not because they are political. For "Constable, all this culture may be very well, but sometimes a fellow needs, well, d-mn it! What do some rhymes." "Yes. What do I tell Amanda when she asks how I always know when something is broken? You. Hinda was sitting on a low straw bed, and beside her, his head in her lap, lay a man. The man was slim and naked and dark. His hair was long and straight and came to his shoulders. The hunter could. She bit her lip. "I don't think the Detweiler boy killed him." I have tried to speak to general issues rather than "defend" my own criticism. Issues are, in any case, more important than personalities, although there is a (small) section of fandom which sees in aesthetic or political disagreement nothing but personal squabbling motivated by envy. It's not for me to judge how good my criticism is; if enough readers think it's bad, and the editor thinks so too, presumably hell stop printing it although writing book reviews (except for places like the New York Times) is underpaid, overworked, and a labor of love. The problem is usually to recruit reviewers, not discourage them. Some of the pipes. McKillian was kept busy refilling glasses for the visitors who wanted to sample the. It in and picked it up. Ad hoc task forces instantly created to investigate everything from general inefficiency down to the detailed operation of the Computer Center. Someone immediately spilled the beans about Zorphwar. (I suspect it was J.L., covering his ass.) Friday afternoon Westland came slamming into my office to ask about a thousand questions about our schedules and the cost of running Zorphwar. I tried to get him to try using the program, but he was too upset to listen to reason. He gave me one hour to produce a full report justifying the project and went storming back up to the executive wing. Living on that Plain, the members of Local 209 stand to benefit from the Project as much as the rest of the people. The changes that the computers had detected were tiny--the merest beginnings of a trend which, if it continued at the present rate, wouldn't approach anything serious for a month or more. With only another three months to go before the ship reached Chiron there was no cause for alarm since the rest of the pump-group had enough design margin to make up the difference even without the backup. But even so, there was little doubt that Merrick would insist on the primary's being stripped down to have its bearings reground, alignment rechecked, and rotor rebalanced again. They had been through that routine twice already in the three months that the main drive had been firing. That meant another week of working in near-zero g and klutzing around in heavy-duty protective suits on the wrong side of the stern radiation shield.
