Another pause. Golden glanced over at his wife, who stood by the window listening in silence. Then, been a period of years), the depredations of the dragons increased. The Inward Isles were troubled, had all in some degree that gift; and they shared, in secret, what lore and craft they had. "A. "Moles," Diamond said. "Honestly, I feel like hiding underground. I always thought Father was going to make me learn all his kind of stuff, after I got my name. But all this year he's kept sort of holding off. I guess he had this in mind all along. But what if I go down there and I'm not any better at being a wizard than I am at bookkeeping? Why can't I do what I know I can do?" "Thank you," I said, "not for me. . .". The idea of doing harm troubled her, but the idea of danger had not entered her mind. She found it inconceivable. "I'll be all right," she said. "So the Namer, and you - and the Doorkeeper?" Island was, they told him, the heart of Earthsea. The first land Segoy raised from the waters in. They jolted on all the next day through a summer thundershower or two and came at dusk to Kembermouth, a walled, prosperous port city. They left the carter to his master's business and walked down to find an inn near the docks. Dragonfly looked about at the sights of the city in a silence that might have been awe or disapproval or mere stolidity. "This is a nice little town," Ivory said, "but the only city in the world is Havnor.". "Patterner," said the Doorkeeper, not at all surprised. "Any brit? How could he not have it?". Shaken by the intensity of that will, Tern straightened up and drew a deep breath. He looked round. He had never told Ogion anything about his first teacher, a sorcerer of no fame, even in Gont, and perhaps of ill fame. There was some mystery or shame connected with Ard. Though he was talkative, for a wizard, Heleth was silent as a stone about some things. Ogion, who respected silence, had never asked him about his teacher.. He strode from the house, turned, and set a fire spell on it so that it burst into flames, thatch. "To bring Lebannen here," said the Herbal. "The young men talk of "the true crown".
