Perhaps he should have persuaded Sirocco not to endorse the request. On the other hand, if anything recommended by Sirocco was inverted to start with, and if Pendrey was crazy but normal by the Army's standards, and if the premises that Pendrey was working with were also crazy, then the decision might come out in Colman's favor after all. Or would it? His attempt to think the tortuous logic of the situation once again was interrupted by Swley at last leaning back and turning his face away from the screen.."The usher who showed you to your seat. I saw him sit down and talk with you."..All but one, that is. For as Nolan moved forward, another shadow glided out from the deeper darkness beside the bungalow.."Mary, I told you about that already," he complained.
